

THE MEGA EVENT (YOUTH FESTIVAL) ORGANISED BY MRSPTU, BATHINDA

Two-day electrifying youth festival 'Rangla Punjab' of Maharaja Ranjit Singh Punjab Technical University commenced at MIMIT, Malout with great fervour under the able patronage of Dr. Jaskaran Singh Bhullar, Principal, MIMIT, Malout and Prof. Bhupinder Pal Singh Dhot Director Sports and youth welfare, MRSPTU Bathinda.

The Chief Guest of the opening ceremony was Sardar Tejinder Singh Midhu Khera, Chairman, Primary Agriculture Development Bank and the Guest of honour was Prof. Bhupinder Pal Singh Dhot. The observers of the event Dr. Amla Sharma, Head of the Department of Music, Govt. Rajindra College ,Bathinda and Sr. Labh Singh Sandhu ,Editor and Writer graced the occasion with their esteemed presence.

The curtain got raised with the recital of shabad followed by a plethora of events like group song, Punjabi folk dance by girls, one act play as well as mimicry. The first day of the youth festival witnessed competitions being conducted simultaneously at three venues. In the Dance category, four events were conducted which included light vocal Indian solo, classical vocal solo, classical solo (P) and Classical Instant solo (NP). Debate & Elocution, Poem Recitations Essay writing, story writing and poem writing were the highlights of the Literary category. The Fine Arts category included events like Rangoli, Mehendi, Collage making and clay modeling.

MIMIT, Malout bagged first position in Poem Recitation, On-the-Spot Painting Competition and Punjabi Folk Dance (Girls). They scored second position in Mehndi and Rangoli competition.

GZCCET, Bathinda secured first position in Rangoli and second position in On-the-Spot Competition and Punjabi Folk Dance (Girls).

SVIET, Banur achieved first position in Mehndi competition.

BFCET, Bathinda obtained first position in Group Song (Shabad and Bhajan) and they secured second position in Rangoli and Mehndi Competition.

YS College ,Handiaya achieved first position in Group song- Indian and stood second in Group Song(Shabad and Bhajan).

BBSBEC, Fatehgarh Sahib bagged second position in Group song- Indian.

AERS , Akliya got second position in Poem Recitation.

Dr. Jaskaran Singh Bhullar, Principal, MIMIT, Malout congratulated Dr. Iqbal Singh, Coordinator of this mega event, and co-coordinator, Mr. Mohit Arora of MIMIT , Malout for their efficient management.

Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, MRSPTU, Bathinda, Professor Mohan Paul Singh Ishar has conveyed his best wishes to the participants as well as the coordinators for successful conduct of this grand event.

Professor Bhupinder Pal Singh Dhot congratulated the entire family of MIMIT on this mega youth festival's great beginning

Professor Jasbir Singh Hundal , Registrar, MRSPTU wished the students & encouraged them to participate actively in the youth festival.

