

MRSPTU 2nd YOUTH FESTIVAL“RANGLA PUNJAB” TO BE ORGANISED AT MIMIT MALOUT.

The second Youth Festival “Rangla Punjab”of Maharaja Ranjit Singh Punjab Technical University, Bathinda will be held on 4th and 5th November at MIMIT Malout under the patronage of Dr. Jaskaran Singh Bhullar Principal Malout announced Professor. Bhupinder Pal Singh Dhot, Director-Sports & youth welfare, MRSPTU,Bathinda.

He further added that more than 15 colleges are participating in this two days grand event. There will be 32 events in all under music, dance, theatre, arts and literary categories.one act play,folk dances,folk songs and other theatre events are going to be the main attraction of this youth festival The jury shall be comprises of reputed personalities from all over Punjab in the respective music, dance, theatre, arts and literary categories. For the smooth conduct of this fest, university has appointed Dr. Iqbal Singh and Mr. Mohit Arora of MIMIT Malout as coordinator and co-coordinator of the event respectively.

Hon’ble Vice Chancellor, MRSPTU, Bathinda, Professor Mohan Paul Singh Ishar has conveyed his best wishes to the participants as well as the Youth welfare deptt of university and Organisers from MIMIT Malout for the successful conduct of this much awaited event.

A meeting of all cultural coordinators of participating colleges was also held at MIMIT Malout recently for reviewing all the required arrangements and to make this mega event a great success. . The meeting was chaired by Professor Bhupinder Pal Singh Dhot Director Sports and Youth Affairs and Dr Jaskaran singh Bhullar Principal MIMIT Malout.

Hon’ble Vice Chancellor, Professor Mohan Paul Singh Ishar will be the Chief Guest during the prize distribution ceremony on the second day of this mega event. Professor Jasbir Singh Hundal, Registrar, MRSPTU will be the Guest of honour of this event.

Professor Bhupinder Pal Singh Dhot apprised that the arrangements of boarding and lodging for all the participants have been effectively made. Three members Observers committee has been formulated by the honble vice chancellor for the selection of team who will represent the university in national level Youth festivals and He also added that the selected teams of this Youth festival will gain an entry to All India University Youth Festivals to be held soon.

Professor Jasbir Singh Hundal , Registrar, MRSPTU wished the students good luck & also encouraged them to participate whole heartedly in this fest.