

Press Note

An internship cum placement drive for the B.Tech and MCA final year students of Giani Zail Singh Campus College of Engineering & Technology (Constituent College of Maharaja Ranjit Singh Punjab Technical University, Bathinda) was held on 20-10-2016. The students from the department of Computer Science & Engineering, Electronics and Communication Engineering and Master of Computer Applications participated. The companies visiting the campus includes Intersoft Professional Mohali, SwipeCubes Softs Pvt Ltd Mohali and IBM business partners. The companies shortlisted the students on the basis of an aptitude and mental ability test. The shortlisted students were then interviewed. Intersoft Professional, Mohali selected Seven students and IBM business partners selected three students of Computer Science & Engineering Department. Swipecubes Softs Pvt Ltd, Mohali, selected two students of CSE and one student of MCA. The students will get stipend upto 8000/- during training period and minimum package of 1.56 lacs p.a after training. IBM Business Partners selected the students for training which will include a chance to work on live projects and certificate from IBM with 100 % scholarship. Harish Gupta, Ritika and Alisha were selected in Swipe Cubes Softs Pvt Ltd. The seven students were selected in Intersoft Professional are Mani Jindal, Sudiksha, Gagandeep Bansal, Jitan, Harish, Sahil Garg and Sarvesh Saini. The department also organised several workshops to enhance the technical knowledge of the students and to help students for their placements. The students were given intensive training and imparted skills for the aptitude test and interview.

Vice Chancellor, Professor Mohan Paul Singh Ishar appreciated the sincere efforts and said that making students job-ready are our main focus.

Professor Jasveer Singh Hundal said that University is taking major initiatives for training and placement of the students in prestigious Companies. Campus director Professor Gursharan Singh and Professor Ashok Goel (TPO) congratulated the selected students. Dr. Naresh Garg HOD said tha many organizations will visit the institute in near future.

