

Dr. Manpreet Dhaliwal MBA, M.phil and PHD in Management is working as an Assistant Professor in MRSPTU Bathinda since 2008. Prior to this she worked as the Head of the department in BGC, Sardulagarh as well as headed the Training and placement cell. An Author of two books she has a wide rich experience in teachings as well as trainings from the last 10 years. She is the resource person for Mahatma Gandhi State Institute of Public Administration Chandigarh providing trainings to senior as well as junior govt. officers of Punjab. She has trained approx. 500 govt. officers under various training programmes. She has also been certified National trainer By DOPT, Govt. of India in various training levels. She is an NLP Practitioner certified from USA as well as practice yoga and Reiki. Her thesis was on Stress among women and till her research on stress continues in various fields. She has presented papers at various National. International Conferences and seminars as well as various Faculty development programmes. She presented her paper on Quality of work life among Sanitation people in USA, University of Riverside and recently her paper has been accepted in University of Oxford London which she will be presenting in the upcoming conference. Her area of specialization are Comm. Skills, HRM and Human Psychology.

Vidvan ID: <https://vidwan.inflibnet.ac.in/profile/213384>