CIRCULAR

It has been decided by the University that the Affiliated Colleges have to deposit all the fees related to SC/ST students of 2015-16 batch including counselling fees. They have to deposit the counselling fees of SC/ST students of 2016-17 and 2017-18 batch, the examination fee and URF except 2015 batch students may be deposited to the University as and when they have received the amount from the Welfare Department for taking NOC from the Accounts Section of the University so that they may get their admissions for 2017-18 session verified by the University. To avail the above relaxation, they have to submit to the University a copy of the claim of these students submitted by them to Welfare Department. This has the approval of the competent authority.
