

ABOUT LALA LAJPAT RAI COLLEGE OF PHARMACY (LLRCP)

Named after a freedom fighter, nationalist leader, thinker cum educationist, Sher-E-Punjab Lala Lajpat Rai. LLRCP was established at Moga, a District Headquarter of Punjab, in the year 2004 by Shiva Educational Trust. It offers academic programs leading to the award of B.Pharm, M.Pharm degrees and D.Pharm, DMLT diplomas. College is committed to quality education with ultra modern infrastructure, well equipped laboratories, and digital instruments in its pursuit for excellence. LLRCP is presently headed by Prof B. S. Bajwa, an experienced and variegated personality. College exhibits a rare blend of education, research and professional accomplishment.

ABOUT ASSOCIATION OF PHARMACEUTICAL TEACHERS OF INDIA (Punjab State Branch)

Established in December 2014, APTI (Punjab State Branch) has a mandate to prosper pharmaceutical education in Punjab by creating awareness about present and upcoming challenges in the field of Pharmaceutical Sciences. The association has successfully organized two Workshops, two Annual Conventions and three National Seminars on diverse fields across different regions. The active participation of all pharmacy institutions of Punjab exhibit an emerging rich culture and awareness on pharmaceutical developments.
